Lot #22 at Tierra Antigua is part of a newly developed 44-acre community by Arete Cole Development Company, LLC. This exclusive development features 23 planned single-family lots and is situated adjacent to the eastern edge of the Las Campanas subdivision, less than 5 miles from downtown Santa Fe. Lot #22 offers a prime location within the subdivision, showcasing stunning natural beauty with panoramic mountain views, breathtaking sunsets, and access to the 50% of the community dedicated to open space. Tierra Antigua includes sensible covenants, paved roads, Santa Fe County water, PNM electric, NM gas, Comcast fiber optic lines, and community sewer on relatively level lots for easy construction. Lot and home packages are available through the developer, Arete Homes, with various floor plans to choose from, or you can work with your own builder/architect to design your dream home. Come explore the extraordinary possibilities of Lot #22 and the entire Tierra Antigua community! About Tierra Antigua - Located just 15 minutes from downtown Santa Fe, Tierra Antigua is a 44-acre community offering only 23 homesites, with over 50% of the land preserved as open space. This rare setting offers privacy, convenience, and an authentic connection to nature. All homesites have utilities at the lot line (County water, Las Campanas Sewer, Xfinity), and the community features a trail system that connects to nearby public trail system. With low $166/month HOA dues,

Tierra Antigua makes building your dream home simple and stress-free.
