Tesuque, Santa Fe, NM

Nestled on a quiet, wooded lane just moments from the beloved Tesuque Market, this enchanting adobe residence, with its metal propanel roof, offers timeless New Mexico charm paired with thoughtful updates and serene outdoor living. A meandering brick pathway, lined with blooming tulips and spring bulbs, leads you from the front gate to a welcoming portal, setting the tone for the beauty that awaits inside. Step through the door and into a world of warmth and authenticity—hand-troweled plaster walls, Saltillo tile floors, and wide plank wood flooring create a rich, textured palette. The living room is a showstopper, infused with character featuring Mesquite wood end cut flooring. Eat-in kitchen area is grounded in history with rare 400-year-old walnut flooring. Coved ceilings with hand-hewn vigas add depth and tradition throughout the home. The sun-filled dining room is the heart of the home, featuring a striking corner Kiva fireplace with a cozy banco, perfect for intimate gatherings or peaceful mornings. A large picture window frames the lush, landscaped gardens like a living painting, making every meal feel like a celebration of nature. Newer windows throughout the home invite natural light while enhancing comfort and efficiency. Outside, your private oasis awaits. A tranquil onyx fountain adds gentle music to the air just below the shaded patio—an ideal setting for both relaxed lounging and al fresco dining. The fully fenced lot offers peace, privacy, and a connection to nature thatâ€™s hard to find so close to town.
