Charming Historic Adobe Home in Santa Fe's East Side

Nestled in the heart of Santa Fe's coveted historic Eastside, this classic territorial style, all-adobe home, built in the 1900s, offers timeless character and exceptional location. Just a short stroll from iconic Canyon Road, this unique property includes a beautifully maintained main residence and a detached casita, large basement with bathroom and 5 parking spaces.

Main house is two bedrooms, 2 baths with kiva fireplace, original wood floors, plaster walls and traditional viga ceilings that exudes Santa Fe style. The brick-floored portal and multiple patios with adobe walls offer lovely options for outdoor living areas. Main house also features an 885 sq ft basement with separate exterior entrance, bathroom and multiple rooms for added possibilities for studio, office or remodel into living space.

Property also includes a detached two-bedroom, one-bath casita—perfect for guests or as a proven income-producing rental - with a remodeled contemporary kitchen and utilities separately metered.

This rare find blends convenience with traditional Southwestern charm and is a truly special opportunity to own a piece of Santa Fe history with strong rental potential and unbeatable walkability.
