Discover a true work of art, designed and built by the artist who cherished it for 18 years. This private sanctuary sits on 10 acres of serene high-desert landscape just south of Santa Fe. Located off the scenic Turquoise Trail (Hwy 14), the gated property offers commanding views from its high point, showcasing the majestic Sangre de Cristo, Jemez, and Sandia Mountains, as well as Cerro Pelon, the Ortiz Mountains, and the Cerrillos Hills.

This move-in ready home masterfully blends a light-filled, soft contemporary feel with the soul of an authentic New Mexican ranch home. The clean, sophisticated design features a pitched metal roof, passive solar principles, and beautiful Saltillo tile floors accented with small decorative tiles.

The heart of the home is the great room, boasting vaulted ceilings with exposed beams, and an open concept kitchen, dining, and living area with a fireplace. The kitchen is appointed with stainless appliances and a large island topped with hand-poured concrete countertops.

Retreat to the luxurious owner's suite, complete with its own kiva fireplace. The spa-like bathroom is a masterpiece of natural light, featuring stunning floor stones from Brazil, a deep footed tub, a walk-in shower, and hand-poured concrete counters. This private oasis also provides access to a walled patio and an outdoor shower.

The second floor reveals a versatile studio, an ideal workspace with durable rubber flooring and a viewing deck that captures spectacular western sunsets over the Jemez and Ortiz Mountains. With views from almost every window and a rainwater catchment system, this 2-bedroom, 2-full-bathroom home is a sophisticated perch offering unmatched solitude and privacy.
