Residential on 39.03 Acres

N/A, Abiquiu, NM

A rare opportunity to own a private wilderness sanctuary, on the market for the first time. This 39-acre self-sustaining refuge, lovingly named Rincon Escondido, "Hidden Corner," is tucked away in the foothills of Sierra Negra and borders Carson National Forest, offering unparalleled privacy just one hour from Santa Fe. Panoramic views of Cerro Pedernal, Sierra Negra, and the Jemez Mountains stretch across rewilded meadows, pollinator gardens, and a tranquil pond with a cascading waterfall.

The 4,032 sq ft property combines a 3,059 sq ft residence with a heated garage and storage room, offering an additional 973 sq ft of versatile space. The home blends timeless Southwestern architecture with refined modern finishes, including hand-carved wood doors, artisan detailing, and locally sourced Nambé brick floors that flow throughout. Each room is designed to maximize natural light and frame dramatic vistas. A chef's kitchen features a Sub-Zero fridge/freezer, Wolf oven, induction cooktop, and custom craftsmanship, while the spa-inspired primary suite offers a deep soaking tub and walk-in shower.

Built for environmental stewardship, the home is fully powered by a grid-tied 20.16 kW photovoltaic system with four Tesla Powerwall 3 batteries and solar-thermal hot water. Passive solar design, radiant in-floor heating and cooling, and high-efficiency systems ensure year-round comfort.

Whether a spiritual retreat, sustainable homestead, or luxury escape, this private refuge is more than a home—it is a living sanctuary.
